Fighting Resumed In Poland and Flanders; American Soldiers Have Left Mexican Soil

Vera Cruz Is Turned Over To Mexicans

General Funston Given Orders Not to Recognize Either of the Factions But to Merely Withdraw American Troops and Leave City to Which-ever Is Near Enough to Take Possession

NO INDEMNITY IS TO BE ASKED BY UNITED STATES

For the Loss of Over a Score of Lives, and the Expenditure of Millions of Money, As Administration Officials Want This Fact to Stand Out, as Showing This Country's Disinterested Friendship for Her Southern Neighbors—Funston Ordered All Saloons Closed—Comparative Quiet Prevailed But Inhabitants Were Apprehensive of Final Outcome.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Washington, Nov. 23.—American troops which have held Vera Cruz since last April were evacuating the city and sailing for home today, and officials here expect sunset will see the Mexican flag floating again over the ancient fortress of San Juan and the American troops will on their way homeward across the gulf.
Dispatches early today from Major General Funston said his furthest outposts had been withdrawn at nine o'clock; at ten troops guarding the railroads at the approaches to the city were withdrawn and at eleven the embarkation was on in earnest.
General Funston reported he expected to sail for Galveston at noon. He reported constitutional troops under General Aguilar were taking possession of the city.
Occupation of the Mexican port, in reprisal for Huerta's insult to the flag at Tampico, has cost the United States more than a score of lives, some in battle and some from disease and, according to some estimates, as much as ten million dollars. But Mexico will be asked to pay no indemnity. Administration officials want that fact to stand out, as an added evidence of the disinterested friendship of the United States for her southern neighbors.
General Funston has instructions to turn the city over to none of the Mexican factions and thereby avoid what might be construed as a recognition of one of them.
His orders are simply to bring his troops away and leave the city to which ever faction takes possession.
Carranza's commander, Aguilar, is nearest, but Carranza troops which have swerved in their allegiance to Villa, are not far distant. There has been some evidence that Carranza intended to move his capital to Vera Cruz upon the American evacuation.
All those Mexicans who fear to remain when the Americans leave are sailing away with General Funston. The refugee priests and nuns have been given places on the transports and the Americans who remain depend for their safety upon guarantees given to the United States by all the Mexican factions, and those American warships which remain in the harbor.
With the departure of the American troops a critical period in the relations between the United States and Mexico comes to an end, and in view of officials here, the Mexican people are left to work out their own destiny among themselves.
The fourth, seventh, nineteenth and twenty-eighth infantry and the first battalion of the fourth field artillery and two squadrons of the sixth cavalry will return to Galveston. The three regiments of marines will go to Philadelphia.
The American forces began embarking on the steamships which will return them to the United States.
The outposts began falling back at 9 o'clock in the morning and two hours later the first American soldiers were going over the sides of the waiting transports.
General Funston established his headquarters on the Cristobal at an early hour, and this and all the organizations of his command began at daylight, the work of moving out their equipment preparatory to final evacuation.
Beyond the American outposts there had been mobilized during the night a force of constitutionalists. As the Americans withdrew first from the outlying districts and then from the city itself the constitutionalists followed them along and nominally occupied the territory vacated.
The city is quiet but the inhabitants are nervous and apprehensive concerning the final outcome of this transfer of authority. All saloons in Vera Cruz remained closed today on orders of Gen. Funston and many commercial establishments decided not to open their doors.
The government of Vera Cruz is not being turned over to any faction of Mexicans, the territory is being evacuated, and as fast as the Americans go out constitutionalists are coming in.
The American army officials are (Continued on Page 5, Col. 5)

Federal Officials Believe Efficient Quarantine Has Conquered Cattle Plague

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Washington, Nov. 23.—The lifting of the quarantine against Canada because of the foot and mouth disease is regarded by officials of the department of agriculture as encouraging evidence that they are "on the outside of the disease."
"This means," says a statement today by the department, "that there are grounds for the belief that quarantines already declared have been sufficient to stop the movement of infected cattle, and that the disease can now be held within the limits of the areas already quarantined."
"Another cause for encouragement is the fact that although a shipment of infected cattle reached Spokane, Washington, some days ago, no new cases have since been reported from the state. This is taken to mean that the diseased cattle are killed and buried before they had an opportunity to spread the disease. In consequence, it has not been considered necessary to quarantine Washington."
"At the present time the states most seriously affected are Ohio, Illinois and Pennsylvania."
"Outside of this belt the states of Connecticut, Rhode Island, and Massachusetts are perhaps the subject of the greatest concern. Although the actual number of cattle already infected is comparatively small, it will probably be some time before any of the quarantines can be lifted in this region."
It is stated that the situation in New York, Delaware and New Jersey seems to be fairly well in hand. (Continued on Page 6, Col. 4.)

Transfer of Passengers From Van Dyck, Captured Off Brazil By German Cruiser.

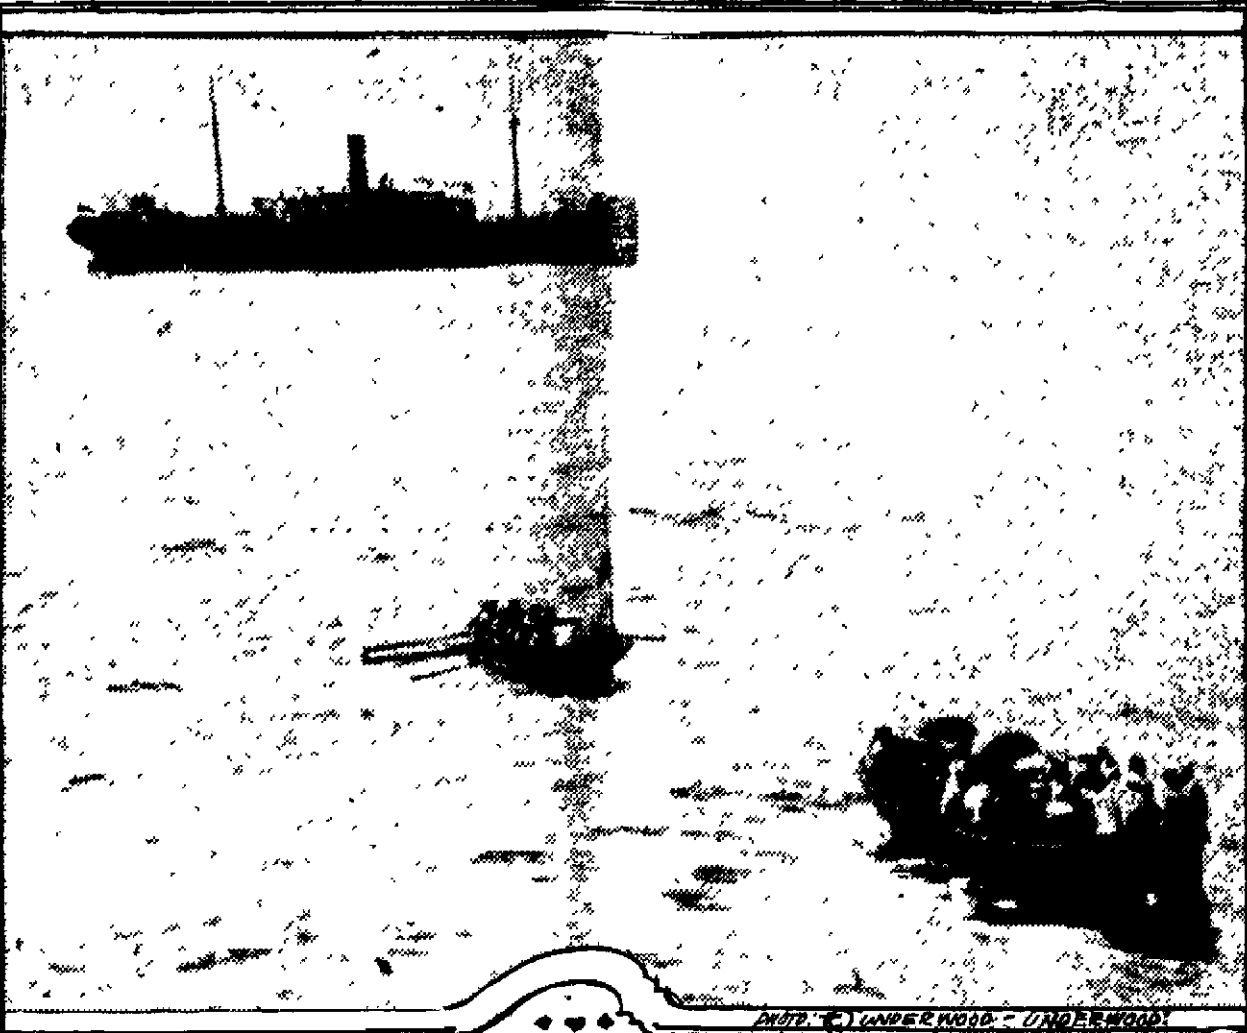

Photo shows the boatload of passengers being transferred from the Van Dyck to the Ascension. Passengers of the British steamer Van Dyck, which was captured 200 miles off the mouth of the Amazon river by the German cruiser Emden has been one of the German terrors of the sea, reached the United States with stories of danger and mutiny.
More than one hundred of them were transferred at sea from the Van Dyck to the steamer Ascension by the cruiser's officers, and were taken to Sao Paulo. There they were transferred to a Brazilian steamer and sent to New York.
On the way to Sao Paulo the stewards of the Van Dyck refused to serve food, but the German guards at the point of the bayonet threatened them.
The passengers said the German officers and crew treated them with courtesy and really protected them against the British stewards of the Van Dyck on the trip to Sao Paulo.

One Is Killed And 2 Injured In Auto Wreck

At the City Hospital this afternoon it was stated that Mr. Burrell and Mr. Willey were improving. Both were said to be out of danger and it is believed they will recover.
David Willey, 33, is dead, Frank Burrell, 21, and Thurman Willey, 22, are in the City Hospital dangerously wounded, as a result of an automobile accident on the Newark and Granville pike Saturday afternoon, when Burrell's automobile overturned while traveling at a high rate of speed. The accident occurred about 3:50 o'clock.
The men were picked up unconscious and rushed to the hospital in the Bazler & Bradley ambulance a few minutes after the accident. Willey lingered until Sunday noon when he died. Burrell's condition is such that he may recover, while Thurman Willey's condition is serious, and it is possible that he suffered internal injuries.
The accident occurred on the concrete road on the west approach of the first hill west of the "dugway." According to eye witnesses to the accident, the machine was traveling at a high rate of speed and just before it overturned, it was seen to swerve from one side of the road to the other, so great was its momentum.
Samuel Chidester of Alexandria, a self-blower, who, with his wife and friends in another machine, was on his way home, met the machine just an instant before the speeding car overturned. It dashed past the Chidester car with less than a foot of space between the machines, according to Mrs. Chidester.
She turned in her seat to watch the machine and was horrified to see it swerve suddenly and then roll like a huge ball over and over in the middle of the road.
One of the men was thrown clear of the road, landing in the grass plot next to the fence. Another occupant was hurled from the car and lay prostrate on the bank, which borders the concrete roadway. Burrell, who was driving, remained in the machine which made two complete turns and then a half turn landing bottom up in the middle of the road, with its front wheels spinning the rear wheels were shattered when the machine turned over.
Calling to her husband, Mrs. Chidester told him to stop his car. The machine was brought to a stop about 200 feet west of the point where the accident occurred. They hurried back to the wreck and in a very few moments a number of people gathered, among them being several men who lifted the light Ford touring car from Burrell's prostrate form.
A telephone message was sent from a nearby house for the Bazler & Bradley ambulance which made a record run to the scene. With the extra stretch in the big motor ambulance and the space on the floor beside the regular cot, the ambulance crew was able to place all three men in the vehicle and a rapid return trip was made. Within a brief period of time, all three men were in the city hospital where the efficient force of attendants quickly made them as comfortable as possible.
Mrs. Essington, Davis and Cosner, who had been notified of the accident, awaited the arrival of the ambulance at the hospital. A hurried examination (Continued on Page 2, Col. 3.)

MODIFICATION OF QUARANTINE IN LICKING COUNTY.

Prosecuting Attorney J. Howard Jones has received the following telegram from Paul Fischer, chief of the bureau of live stock industry of the state, and which is self-explanatory:
Columbus, O., Nov. 23.—"Arrangements have been made to permit movement of cattle into nearby winter quarters, where this is absolutely necessary, and prosecuting attorneys in counties free of infection have been instructed to issue these permits. Your county being infected the duty of issuing permits will be restricted to district inspectors in charge for your county. Apply to Dr. D. J. Frame, Sherwood hotel."

Arrest Priest At a Wedding For Slander

Factional Troubles in the Rumanian Greek Catholic Church Involved in the Lawsuit.

Rev. J. Podca, Rumanian Greek Catholic Arch priest, of the United States, whose residence is given as 413 South Darr avenue, Farrell, Pa., was arrested Sunday evening by Special Constable Charles More of Justice Fletcher S. Scott's court, at a home in North Newark, where a Rumanian wedding was being celebrated.
The warrant for Rev. Podca's detention was issued on affidavit of Augustine Sisco, who charges him with malicious slander. In that the Newark man was maligned in a paper called The Voice of the Times, published at Youngstown, O., it is alleged, by Rev. Podca, Sisco is charged in an anonymous letter with the misappropriation of funds of a local Rumanian church. He denies this charge and brings a damage suit against Rev. Podca for the sum of $10,000.
Rev. Podca was brought to the county jail and friends were notified. He was only detained in the waiting room until they could arrive and arrange for his release on bail which was furnished by Pete China a bond of $500 being provided. The case will come up in Justice Scott's court for hearing on Tuesday, December 1.
The detention of Rev. Podca caused much excitement among the Rumanian foreign colony and in a short time the jail yard was full of excited foreigners. Sheriff Frank S. Slabaugh addressed them through Mr. China assuring them that the reverend gentleman was only awaiting there until his bond could be approved a necessary procedure, after which he would be allowed to join them.
There seems to be two factions among the Rumanians and they are having a quarrel of some nature at the present time. The trial will undoubtedly prove interesting and may be the means of alleviating the present trouble.

Fighting In East Poland Is Desperate

Strange Silence Regarding the Progress of This Battle In Both German and Russian Army Headquarters, the Former Regarding It as Crucial And May be Decisive of War's Outcome

CONFLICT IN FLANDERS ALSO BECOMES VIOLENT

Germans Reported to Be Bringing Up Reinforcements Through Belgium, After a Bold Attempt to Break the Center of the Allies' Line—Turkish Forces Reported at Suez Canal—British Attack On Zeppelin Headquarters In Germany Causes a Sensation In Both Countries, Greater Than the Actual Damage Done.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
London, Nov. 23.—Desperate fighting in Russian Poland but without details as to the outcome and a resumption of similar activity in West Flanders are the outstanding features today in the areas of military operations. The fury caused by the attack of British aviators on the Zeppelin headquarters at Friedrichshafen has not yet subsided and the amount of comment on this incident appearing in both the German and the English press, seems to be out of all proportion to the real damage inflicted.
Violent bombardments have destroyed the town hall and the central market at Ypres according to official news reaching here from Paris. This may herald the resumption of the attempt on the part of the Germans to break the center, held by the English, of the allied line blocking their way to the coast. This theory finds some confirmation in the renewed reports that the Germans are bringing up heavy reinforcements through Belgium.
From Germany there comes reports of feverish activity in the construction of warships, as well as in the manufacture of Zeppelin airships. The opinion prevails that Germany is not able to compete with Great Britain in the construction of battleships. Consequently she is devoting energy to the building of an air fleet. Naval construction takes relatively second place.
Both sides continue to be reticent concerning the progress of the great battles in Poland but Berlin is confident that General von Hindenberg will justify his reputation as the most successful of the German generals.
A military authority quoted by the Berlin's Lokal Anzeiger, declares that the fall of Lemberg is only a question of time because von Hindenberg is rallying up the Russian right while at the same time the Austrians are attacking on the left. There is, however no direct information from the front to confirm this opinion.
Petrograd is silent about the strategy of the present campaign which does not seem to excite any greater concern in the Russian capital than did the previous German advance on Warsaw. Berlin, on the other hand, seems to regard the Polish operations as decisive in the Russian campaign, if not on the outcome of the entire war.
In the near east Turkish forces are reported within touch of the Suez canal and the famous Egyptian camel corps is said to have had a brush with the Turks.
Within Great Britain's own borders, attention has been turned to the sensational affair in the alien concentration camp on the Isle of Man, in which several of the prisoners were killed. In a body the interned aliens made a concentrated attack on their guard, who seem to have not only suppressed a mutiny due to discontent at food and quarters, but to have actually quelled a desperate attempt to escape.

Injunction Suit Brought by Anti-Saloon League, Argued By Attorneys For Both Sides

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Columbus, Nov. 23.—Attorney General Hogan appeared in court today for the second time within a week to argue against a suit brought by the anti-saloon league contesting the home rule amendment recently adopted. The argument today was before Judge E. B. Kinkead of the Franklin county common pleas court, on the suit brought in the names of Charles Hockett, of Bellefontaine, to enjoin the state liquor licensing commission from appointing licensees of saloons in Logan county.
J. A. White, attorney for the anti-saloon league urged granting of the injunction on three grounds—that the entrance of saloons into that county, will deprive those citizens of property without due process of law, inasmuch as the liquor business will hurt other business seriously, that there was no legal machinery for the submission of the initiated amendments this year, and that taxpayers money should not be used to pay the salary of license officials.
Attorney General Hogan and special counsel James I. Boulzer, arguing in defense of the home rule amendment and the liquor licensing commission, declared the injunction should not be granted on the ground of harm to other business, because there is no evidence that any business is hurt by the starting of other businesses. It is claimed, that even if Hockett's piano business should be hurt that the situation is not one in which the law would provide a remedy.
Answering the "taxpayer" argument, Attorney General Hogan explained that no taxpayer is taxed directly to pay the salary of license officials but that his money is taken from the fund made on saloon license fees.
The attorney general held that there was legal machinery for submission of the initiated amendments, provided by the general election laws. He held that the amendments provide these general laws shall govern elections "not otherwise provided for."
Even if there were no legal provision for submitting the amendments to the people, Mr. Hogan maintained that after the questions have been submitted and acted on by the people of the state, "the will of the people should not be thwarted," by such court action.
The Anti-Saloon League brought the suit in the name of Hockett and all citizens, of the other counties, dry under local option statutes, A. J. Miller, Bellefontaine attorney, assisted in the case.
The first suit of the Anti-Saloon League was heard in the Supreme court Friday. It sought to mandamus Secretary of State Graves to order a recount of votes on the home rule and prohibition amendments in the four most populous counties of the state. Dry leaders today expressed the hope that the court will give its decision in the case tomorrow.

able and desirable to many of the philosophers and sociologists.
This feeling was voiced by a commentator, who said: "The boys are trained to consider as hero, not the moral champion or the mental expert, but the successful tackler or heavy rusher."

This fall no more is heard of the proposed abolition of football than the abolition of July Fourth university fairs or any other recognized American institution. Yet the objections to the game seem about as strong as ever. It does distract the minds of the boys from scholarship, and it does pay a heavy toll of physical disabilities.

Perhaps our educators are coming to realize that colleges are a democracy, in which the student body has an important voice. You can make rules that shall concentrate thought on scholarship, and rule out the physical material. But the boys can to them by refusal to attend any such institution.

The scholastic may think the ideal is the one who sits in the room of the college library, reading "Paradise Lost," while his mates are lying up in a heap out on the sidewalk. Actually the bookish boy is a spectator in life. He is not doing things himself. The boy engaged in a homeric scrimmage or a 20 yard line may not be doing anything intrinsically valuable. But he is at least learning to do, to dare, to endure, to think, to obey.

These are vital values. The only question is, are the physical risks so great? Probably an increasing number of parents feel that they are and that other games would give good training at less cost. But football will always be played.

How can they ever expect the new currency system to be a success, when there are several thousand ambitious and growing towns that have been provided with a federal reserve bank?

When Father Time comes to other in Gen. Carranza, the latter probably remark that he is going to go at once on only 17 days.

If the Germans should blow up the city of London, the news censors probably admit it several months after the newspapers had noted it.

Most Peaceful Spot.

South America can make the claim of being the most peaceful spot in the world. Of the 50,000,000 population about 350,000 belong to the contending powers. In North America, of some 120,000,000, there are 8,000,000 belonging to Great Britain and at that we have to count Mexico as peaceful, which is hardly precise. - Pittsburgh Dispatch.

Lord Roberts a Humorist.

Lord Roberts was something of a military genius himself, but he recognized his own limitations. That becomes apparent from an interview in The Toronto World, in which General Hughes is reported as saying: "I am quite content to abide by the opinion of Lord Roberts, who said to me privately, and repeated in public on many occasions, that the mobilization, equipment and transportation of the Canadian contingent showed a driving power and a genius for military affairs on the part of your humble servant without a parallel in history." There must have been a vein of dry humor in the hero of Kandahar. - Toronto Globe.

School Savings Banks.

The report of the operation of 48 school savings banks shows that the Chicago schoolboy readily responds to encouragement to save. It furthermore suggests the extension of the course in old-fashioned thrift to grammar schools which are without this department. The statistics are interesting and important, because every penny deposited by a small boy or girl represents a positive act of self-denial, a willingness to forego immediate pleasure on the prospect of future benefit. In brief, it represents a lesson in one of the fundamentals of the successful life.
During the last few months no less than 8399 small persons have risen to the heights of resolution required for foregoing candy and the like and depositing the money in the savings banks. The total amount deposited during this period is $5,349.90. Of the depositors only 912 have fallen by the wayside and closed their accounts. - Chicago Herald.

Bob Burdette.

The world is poorer for the passing of Bob Burdette, genuine humorist of the old school, a preacher of the gospel of cheerfulness and practical Christianity. There was nothing of the clown about Burdette. You never laughed at, but always with him. He was forever holding up the bright side of life and his fun was consistently good-natured. His books are pretty well forgotten by the present generation, but the memory of his helpful personality will long abide. - Pittsburgh Gazette Times.

Why Not Zanesville?

The community Christmas idea, which was tried out in many Ohio cities last year proved so popular that all these municipalities and many more are already making preparations to carry out the idea on a more elaborate scale this year.
Cleveland, Columbus, Toledo, Dayton, Akron and, nearer home, Newark and Cambridge, were among the pioneers in the movement. Columbus erected a monster Christmas tree, some 60 or more feet in height in the capital grounds, trimmed it elaborately and strung hundreds of vari-colored electric lights on it. Appropriate exercises with band music and Christmas carols opened the celebration on Christmas eve. Each evening thereafter, during the entire holiday week, the musical program was continued. Why should not Zanesville have its community Christmas tree and celebration? We have seen our neighbors spreading the gospel of good will in a most practical manner at one Christmas time while we selfishly sought out personal pleasures. - Zanesville Times Recorder.

DEAD DAYS

The world went well when I was young; no gossip had an evil tongue, but people went from back to back, to praise a man
behind his back.
We had the reign unbroken, then, of peace on earth,
good will to men.
The world grows better, I am told;
it may be so—I'm growing old, and everything that's dead looks fine; I want no modern things in mine.
What tales were told, what songs were sung, in those brave days when I was young? Then glory plied the pen inspired, and noble words sat up and yelled; but note the books they're printing now, adapted to the lowest brow. What sort of music do we know? A rag-time strain by Jungle Joe. To dig up music that will last, you have to take around the past; to find a book that isn't rot, you look to Thackeray and Scott. There's nothing now of lasting worth, that I can see, in all the earth. Perhaps the old world's not to blame; perhaps I'm weary of the game, as people tire when they grow old, and hands and hearts and feet are cold. And so we'll let it go at that; ambitious youth is at the bat.

Review, "The Eyes of the World."—Maud Mackay.

No guests were entertained at the Saturday meeting. A delicious luncheon was enjoyed.

The Elks club will entertain on Tuesday afternoon with another of the series of card parties arranged for the women. The party will be given in the club room and the game will begin at 2 o'clock.

The Alfretha club will entertain on Thanksgiving eve, November 25, with the first of the series of winter dances which will be given this year at the Masonic Temple Hall.

Miss Margaret Fuller entertained with a pretty afternoon thymble party on Saturday at her home in West Church street. The hours were informally spent and in the two contests the trophies were awarded to Misses Juliet Besuden and Helen Beard. The souvenirs of the afternoon were miniature work bags with thimbles and scissors. Luncheon was served to twelve guests.

The third and largest of Miss Hirschberg (Lyon's) musical "At Homes" occurred Sunday from three to five, when fully fifty ladies called to hear a semi-sacred program of choice selections. Mrs. W. W. Davis rendered several piano numbers in her own incomparable style. Miss Sabina Hirschberg brilliantly accompanied the singers, as well as her own solo performance. Miss Edna Wise, who has just returned from two years study abroad, sang delightfully some well-chosen songs. Miss Wise promises to give Newark much fine vocal music, as her voice is already far beyond the amateur stage. Well placed, true high, and clear, her singing is characteristically delightful.

Assisting in the dispensation of hospitality in the dining room were Miss Besuden, Miss Grace Fulton, Miss Mabel Jones, and Miss Latimer. Here flowers and candles softened and beautified the dainty table.

Miss Hirschberg (Lyon's) "At Homes" will continue until she has had opportunity to receive all of her Newark friends.

Her concert will occur on December 3 at the High School Auditorium.

At her home in Beach street on Sunday morning Miss Ida Schenk honored Mr. Florin Fletcher with a birthday surprise. The evening was delightfully spent, music and games furnishing amusement. Several very pretty piano solos were rendered by Miss Fletcher and Miss Humphrey. At a late hour a delicious repast was served the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Fletcher, Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Cramer, Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Schunk, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wenter, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Swartz, Mrs. M. Cramer, Mrs. Sara Ungar, Miss Glenna Fletcher, Miss Mildred Humphrey, Miss Mary Heacock of Cleveland, O., Miss Ethel Wenter, Miss Irene Wenter and the hostess, Messrs. Burt Brown, Rudolph Schenk, Harry Brown, Fred Schenk, and Florin Fletcher.

DUFFIELD-HUTZELL.

Edward E. Duffield, a fine foreman on the Ohio Electric railway, and Miss Katherine M. Hutzell of Hebron, were married Saturday evening at 5 o'clock at the parsonage by Rev. Charles McLaughlin at No. 12, North Cedar street. The newly wedded couple will reside in this city.

FRANKLIN BANK

GETS SOME OF THE RESERVE NOTES

The Franklin National Bank of this City Monday received from the Chicago Regional bank a number of Federal reserve notes, issued by the government under the new financial system now in force over the country. The Franklin bank had asked for $500 worth of the new currency in different denominations so that it might be handed out to the public that it might become familiar with the new bank notes. So great has been the demand for the new money that only $50, ten five dollar notes were sent to this city. It will only be a short time however, until the bank will be supplied with the new federal reserve notes in the denominations in which they are issued, $5, $10, $20, $50 and $100.

The new bills are uniform with all previous bank notes. The face of the bill contains an engraving of Lincoln, with clear distinct figure five in each corner. The serial numbers are in the upper right hand corner and also in the lower left. To the left within a small stamp is the name of the bank of issue. Along the border, top and bottom of the face is the wording "Federal Reserve Bank."

The back of the note is a beautiful piece of engraving. In each corner is the figure five, and on all the new notes there will be uniformity of figures, making it much easier for the bank employes in counting money. There are two splendid photo-engravings on the back, one depicting Columbus sighting land on his voyage of discovery and the other the landing of the Pilgrim fathers.

The new bills no doubt will become very popular and Cashier Warren Suter of the Franklin bank hopes to have a supply on hand within a few days.

Profitable Roses.

Roses, though generally admitted as the most beautiful flower, are not universally recognized as the profitable article of commerce that they really are. Trade roses are grown in various parts of Europe, but chiefly at Grasse, in France, and Kasanlik, in Bulgaria, where great stretches of rose gardens provide the chief supply of roses for the markets of the world. The highly cultivated roses are useless for commercial purposes, and both at Grasse and Kasanlik it is the cabbage rose that is chiefly grown—"the rose of a hundred petals," as they call it in southern France. The Grasse roses are used chiefly for pomades, soaps, rose water, and such commodities, and the demand made by the manufacturers of such on the rose growers of Grasse can be partly gauged from the fact that more than 2,500,000 pounds of roses are annually gathered in the district. Essence, or, as it is called, attar of roses, is rarely made in France, on account of the expense of production, but nearly all the Bulgarian roses are used for this purpose.

History Made by a Postage Stamp.

A postage stamp which played a part in history is told about by M. Bunau-Varilla in his book on the Panama canal. The incident occurred when the discussion over the relative merits of the Panama and Nicaragua routes was at its height. Bunau-Varilla had been working vigorously for the Panama route, making use of the two arguments of less cost and immunity from active volcanoes. One day he recalled that Nicaragua had issued a handsome stamp, showing a volcano in full activity. He at once sent to the dealers in foreign stamps in Washington, and obtained ninety of these stamps, which he forwarded to the ninety senators, along with bits of paper bearing the words, "Postage stamp of the republic of Nicaragua; an official witness of the volcanic activities of Nicaragua." The catastrophe at St. Pierre took place about this time, to deepen the impression of volcanic danger, and the Panama route was adopted by the narrow margin of four votes.—New York Post.

CHICAGO WOMAN GOES TO BELGIUM TO AID CHILDREN

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Chicago, Nov. 23.—(AP.) Caroline Hedger, formerly in charge of the infant welfare work in Chicago and her assistant, Miss Janet Hall, will leave tomorrow for Belgium to take charge of the work of caring for homeless children under the Belgian Red Cross. They will sail from New York on the liner Philadelphia on November 28.

The Chicago Women's Club today donated $2,000 to Dr. Hedger and her assistant to defray their expenses. They will carry with them doses of typhoid vaccine prepared and donated by a Chicago woman physician at a cost of $5,000. In New York Dr. Hedger will be given 15,000 vaccine needles and $700 worth of dressing by the Red Cross.

Dr. Hedger is going to Belgium. It was announced in response to an appeal from her friend, Mrs. Anne Fowler von Schelle, wife of the chief of the Red Cross workers in Brussels.

VERA CRUZ

(Continued from Page 1.) taking with them the moneys collected for customs and from other sources of revenue. These will ultimately go to some Mexican government which the United States deems a proper one to receive them.

The American quartermaster department has arranged to take away from Vera Cruz something like 300 Mexicans, who did not care to be in the city when their countrymen again came into possession.

General Villa informed the United States consul agent through George C. Carothers that he has issued general orders that any of his soldiers molesting women or pillaging on entering Mexico City will be summarily shot.

Acting Secretary Lansing today announced receipt of this information from Mr. Carothers, adding that order was reported prevailing in all the cities and towns thus far occupied by Villa's army. Mr. Carothers wired that arrangements were being made for the peaceful entry of the Villa columns into Mexico City.

From the Mexican capital, came advice to the state department that the panic of residents had partially subsided with the assumption of full command by General Lucio Blanco, who, after a heated argument with General Obregon, declined to accompany the latter in abandoning the city. Blanco has given assurance to the Brazilian minister and American consul Silliman that he will maintain order and has appointed a chief of police and several municipal officers to replace those who left to join Carranza at Orizaba.

Some Notes on "Origins." "Humpty Dumpty Sat on a Wall," etc., has come down to us from the days of King John. "The Babes in the Wood" dates from the fifteenth century, being founded upon facts, an old house near Wayland Wood, Norfolk, having the whole story in carvings on a mantelpiece. "Little Jack Horner," "Little Miss Muffet," "Old Mother Hubbard," "Mother Goosey" and "Goosey, Goosey, Gander" are each traceable to the sixteenth century.

"Pussy Cat, Pussy Cat, Where Have You Been?" belongs to the reign of Queen Elizabeth. "Three Blind Mice" first appeared in a music book dated 1600. "A Froggie Would a-Wooling Go" was licensed to be sung as far back as 1600. "Boys and Girls Come Out to Play" and "Lucy Locket Lost Her Pocket" both hail from the period of Charles II. And, last of all, "Cinderella," "Jack the Giant Killer," "Bluebeard" and "Tom Thumb" were published by their author, Charles Perrault, in the year 1697.—London Notes and Queries.

The Boer Umbrella. Umbrellas for some inscrutable reason, for the seasons in South Africa are not so changeable as ours, are much used by the Boers. In common with our own views, the Boer believed that an umbrella gave a man an air of distinction, though the shocking specimens they carried, which reminded one very much of Sairey Gamp, would not have been calculated to possess this attribute among our own countrymen. Where these umbrellas came from is one of the many unknown facts of the old time republic. They were big and bulky, as a rule of al-paca, and the catch was generally out of order, but they were always to be found in the guest room when the "old man" was at home and always accompanied him in the spider when he journeyed into town on Saturday. They were rarely opened in public, because if the weather was wet the Boer stayed at home. An umbrella is not considered necessary on horse-back, as a rule, but the Boer carried it there just the same as he did when driving in his spider and often used it as a whip to urge his steers on.—Out-Sitter.

Canada in 1913 had $46,915 for United States playing cards.

Pleasant Hypocrites. In a school I once attended the most popular girl was the most tactful one. As far as I know, only one girl disliked her. That girl was spiteful, cross and therefore not very well liked. Do you know what she used to call our idol? A hypocrite. The words bothered me not a little, and I spoke to my chum about it, but she answered me in her thoughtful little way: "Well, I guess that may be. Betty is a hypocrite if being a hypocrite means saying little kind things based on small pretenses and leaving unsaid the unkind things, no matter how good a reason there is for saying them. But she's a mighty comfortable person to have around. I wish that the world was full of such hypocrites!"—Christian Herald.

GERMANS SAVE CREWS, SENDING SHIPS TO BOTTOM.

(Associated Press Telegram)
London, Nov. 23.—A despatch to the Times from Montevideo, Uruguay says the arrival of the German steamer Sierra Cordoba there with the passengers and crew of the British steamer La Correntina, and the crew of the French bark Union has cleared up the mystery surrounding the fate of the La Correntina.

The liner La Correntina left Buenos Aires for Liverpool early in October and her non-arrival at the British port had aroused fears as to her safety. It appears from the story told by her passengers that La Correntina was overtaken on October 7, 720 miles northwest of Lobos Island by the German converted cruiser Kronprinz Wilhelm which, after taking off the passengers and crew sent the British liner to the bottom.

The French bark Union was picked up by the Kronprinz Wilhelm on October 28 and scuttled, after her crew had been taken off.

The speaker stopped over here for a short time following a long trip in the south. He will not return to Washington until about the first week of December.

WONT MIX

Bad Food and Good Health Won't Mix

The human stomach stands much abuse but it won't return good health if you give it bad food.

If you feed right you should feel right, for proper food and a good mind is the sure road to health.

"A year ago, I became much alarmed about my health for I began to suffer after each meal no matter how little I ate," says a Denver woman.

"I lost my appetite and the very thought of food grew distasteful, with the result that I was not nourished and got weak and thin."

"My home cares were very heavy for besides a large family of my own I have also to look out for an aged mother. There was no one to shoulder my household burdens, and come what might I must bear them, and this thought nearly drove me frantic when I realized that my health was breaking down."

"I read an article in the paper about some one with trouble like mine being helped by Grape-Nuts, and getting on this suggestion I gave Grape-Nuts a trial. The first dish of this delicious food proved that I had struck the right thing."

"My uncomfortable feelings, to stomach disappeared as if by magic and in an incredibly short space of time I was again myself. Since then I have gained 12 pounds, in weight, through a summer of hard work and realize I am a very different woman, all due to the splendid food, Grape-Nuts."

Ready Money.

Coming almost from its extraordinary engagements in New York, and Boston, "Ready Money," James Montgomery's comedy of love, romance and thrills, will be the offering at the Victoria Theatre to introduce The Hall Players to Newark Theatre goers Monday night.

"Ready Money" simply enters into the question because the young hero of this comedy romance must have money in order to overcome the opposition of a worldly wise mother, who does not wish her daughter to wed for love alone.

Though the prospective owner of a gold mine he has but twenty-five cents on New Year's Eve when the play opens and his friends are gathering to celebrate the New Year festivities.

The situation is a perplexing one. An honest young man is sorely tried at the beginning of the comedy because he is in love with a charming young woman whose mother frowns on their marriage because of the penniless condition of the young man in question. But he must get financial help in some manner, or he may lose the chance to marry the girl he loves. Jackson lives, a counterfeiter, comes to him and offers a proposition which he guarantees will make his fortune in a couple of days. His proposal is a perfectly legitimate one and Baird finally consents to try the experiment, and out of this situation are brought many thrilling scenes until in the end the aspirant for marital honors becomes a very rich man.

Authoritatively Informed.

"So you come from New York?" said an English lady to a traveling American. "I suppose so, if you're from Boston." "Well, I've been there," inquired the American. "I've been to London, Paris, and all the great cities of the world, but I never saw a more beautiful city than Boston."

Disturbed.

In a hotel in New York, a man in a blue uniform, who was in the same room as the American, said to him:

Couldn't See It.

"I've been to New York, London, Paris, and all the great cities of the world, but I never saw a more beautiful city than Boston."

TOLEDO WOMAN'S DEATH A MYSTERY; CORONER IN CASE.

(Associated Press Telegram)
Toledo, Nov. 23.—Mrs. Caroline Deroche, 48, wife of Joseph Deroche of 135 North Huron street, died under mysterious circumstances in a room on the third floor of a local hotel yesterday morning at 9 o'clock.

John Morehouse, a guest, heard the woman fall and summoning help entered the apartment.

Coroner Henzler discovered a deep wound in Mrs. Deroche's forehead and is investigating.

LOBSTER INDUSTRY HIT HARD BY WAR.

(Associated Press Telegram)
St. John's, N. F., Nov. 23.—The canned lobster industry of New Foundland and Canada has been hard hit by the European war. As Germany is the largest consumer of this product, the principal market has been cut off. A case of 480 tins which brought $24, in Newfoundland before the war now cannot be sold for more than eight or ten dollars.

Ordinarily the returns from the industry amounted to about three million dollars a year in Canada and half a million dollars in this colony.

Snap Shots

Now that a great war is going on it is possible, barely possible, that someone may discover what a sword is for.

The adjuration to the effect that faith will remove mountains is generally accepted, but there is no evidence to that effect.

"He is the sort of fellow," said Eph Wiley yesterday, "who honors women and neglects his wife."

Newly married people come back from their honeymoon trip expecting to attract a good deal of attention and discover that during their three weeks' absence the town forgot them.

The trouble is that in real life the fellow who holds the mortgage on the farm never wants to marry the old man's daughter.

If it is anything scandalous the people not only want to hear about it, but they are also interested in the details.

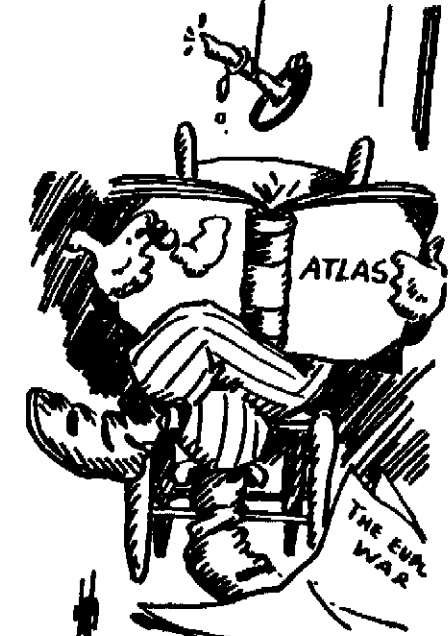

If you have never smoked a ten cent cigar a five-center is just as good.

The reasoning of the missionary who publicly advises American girls not to marry Chinese men appears to be sound.

Do You Blame Him?
"Jones," said a hotel manager to a waiter, "what did that gent from table No. 10 leave so suddenly for?"
"Well, sir," said the waiter, "he sat down and asked for sausages, and I told him we were out of them, but if he would care to wait a few minutes I could get the cook to make some."
"Well," said the manager, "what then?"
"I went to the kitchen," resumed the waiter, "and accidentally trod upon the dog's tail, and, of course it yelped. And suddenly the gent got up and left."—London Tit-Bits.

AFTER YOU ARE FORTY

Forty years is middle age or should be. People who squander their youth are old at forty; everybody needs to give a little more care to health and careful living after passing the fortieth milestone.

The reserve of strength is not what it used to be. Nature needs a little help if we are to continue the work and worry of modern life. To most people Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, non-alcoholic, but a supporting tonic, gives just the necessary assistance.

These pills make the thin blood rich and red, carry nourishment to weak and inflamed nerves, increase the appetite and make digestion normal, correct sleeplessness and most forms of headache. Try them for any trouble caused by thin blood or weak nerves, such as anemia, the shingles, neuritis, sciatica, lumbago, indigestion, sick headache or St. Vitus' dance. It is surprising how many diseases are due to thin and impure blood, how quickly they yield when by proper treatment the blood is built up, and the wasted nerves are soothed. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills contain no poisons or habit-forming drugs and cannot do harm.

Plans for the treatment of diseases of the blood and nerves will be sent free by the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y. Your own druggist sells Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

DEATH CALLS WELL KNOWN NEWARK MEN

JOHN W. ADAMS AND 'SQUIRE MINOTT O. NASH ANSWER THE SUMMONS.

Pneumonia Was the Cause of Former's Demise After Less Than a Week's Illness.

John Wesley Adams, 69, sanitary officer in the health department, died at the Newark Sanitarium Saturday night after an illness of pneumonia which lasted less than a week. He contracted a heavy cold a week ago Saturday, which grew worse until his condition became so bad that he was removed to the Sanitarium last Tuesday. He expressed his belief to his physician and attendants at the Sanitarium that he would not recover, and it is believed that this had much to do with the fatal termination of the attack which was aggravated by a chronic asthmatic condition.

That Mr. Adams had a premonition of his death was indicated by remarks he made to his children at various times. He spoke frequently within the past few weeks of his death, and said that he did not believe it would be long before he would be called to join his wife who died last April.

He had grieved constantly though silently, over his wife's death and his desire to be with her in the next world is believed to have caused him to become passive to the ravages of the malady without any effort on his part to combat it.

A week ago Sunday he visited at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Clarence Brown, in Coshocton. It was there that the cold manifested itself. He refused to remain there, however, and take treatment for the cold, insisting that the duties of his office made it imperative for him to return at once.

He worked in the office Monday last and on Monday night was seized with a chill. He left his room, going to the office of the health department in Church street, only a block away. It was there that Dr. Knauss found him the following morning, quite ill, but still determined to "stay on the job."

Dr. Knauss insisted that the man be properly cared for and removed him to the Sanitarium in his automobile. He grew rapidly worse in spite of all that the several physicians and Sanitarium attendants could do to save his life. His death occurred about 10 o'clock Saturday night.

The body was removed to the Bazel & Bradley morgue and prepared for burial. Later it was removed to the home of his son where it will remain until the day of the funeral.

Mr. Adams was born in Newark, Oct. 4, 1845. He was a son of the late Wesley Adams, well known as a pioneer in Newark.

He was educated in the public schools of the city and early in his young manhood he studied law, but never practiced that profession. He was at one time proprietor of a laundry, operating the plant for nearly a quarter of a century.

Mr. Adams also traveled extensively, delivering lectures on popular subjects. He spent some time in the newspaper business and was at one time the agent for a life insurance company.

He was always intensely interested in the cause of organized labor and was at one time prominently associated with the local trades and labor federation.

While he was interested in numerous secret orders during his younger days, he withdrew from all the organizations later in life, chiefly because of his love for his invalid wife. He spent all the time possible with her, and his grief was very keen when she passed away.

He is survived by two sons and two daughters. They are Charles S. Adams, of Chestnut street, and John L. Adams, of Pearl street, both of this city, Mrs. Frank Turley of Covington, Ky., and Mrs. Clarence Brown of Coshocton. Four grandchildren also survive, Grace, Walter and Fred Turley of Covington, and Evelyn McKamey, who makes her home with Mr. and Mrs. Brown at Coshocton.

Mr. Adams' great grandfather was General Baldwin of Mexican war fame and Lemuel Adams, a cousin, was at one time a prominent official in the treasury department at Washington.

Funeral services will be held Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of his son, John L. Adams, 41 Pearl street. Rev. L. C. Sparks will officiate. Burial at Cedar Hill cemetery.

Best Laxative For Children

When your baby is cross and fretful instead of the happy, laughing little dear you are accustomed to, in all probability the digestion has become deranged and the bowels need attention. Give it a mild laxative, dispel the irritability and bring back the happy content of babyhood.

The very best laxative for children is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, because it contains no opiate or narcotic drug, is pleasant tasting and acts gently, but surely, without griping or other distress. Druggists sell Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin at fifty cents and one dollar a bottle. For a free trial bottle write to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 451 Washington St., Monticello, Ill.

The various battles in which the regiment participated, among the more important engagements being two battles at Jackson, Miss., the siege and assault of Vicksburg, Brice's Cross Roads, Nashville and the pursuit of Confederate General Hood from December 17, 1864 to January 1, 1865.

His brother, William Nash, was in the same company and was captured at the battle of Brice's Cross Roads and was a prisoner in the various rebel prison camps until the end of the war. Both were mustered out with the company at Columbus in 1865.

Since the war, Mr. Nash has been greatly interested in the military organizations composed of survivors of the great conflict. He was a member of the G. A. R., the Union Veteran Legion and company B, Old Guards. At the time of his death he was sergeant of the Old Guard. He was twice elected commander of the local post, G. A. R., and was twice colonel of the Union Veteran Legion. At the last meeting of the Memorial Association of the 85th regiment, he was elected president for the ensuing year.

Mr. Nash united with the First Baptist church under the pastorate of the late Rev. D. E. Owen, and has been a faithful member of that church since that time. He has at various times served his church in an official capacity.

He is survived by his widow and one son, Owen Nash, local attorney, to mourn his death. He also leaves a brother William Nash, living in Dayton, and three sisters, Mrs. J. F. Childress, Mrs. Ella Daniels and Mrs. A. L. Crow, all of Chicago, and Mrs. Gertrude Washburn, of Vineland, N. J.

Funeral services will be held at the Fifth Street Baptist church Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock. Burial at Welsh Hills cemetery.

ELK MINSTREL TO BE GIVEN IN FEBRUARY

Partial arrangements have been completed for the annual Elk minstrel which will probably be staged the third week in February. At a meeting of the Elk minstrel committee it was decided to secure no pains or expense in making this year's minstrel the premier of these popular annual events which are looked forward to with much pleasurable anticipation by the amusement loving people of the city.

In view of the fact that a project is now under way for the early completion of a new Elk home and that elaborate plans are under consideration for the distribution of the annual Christmas cheer to the city's worthy poor by the local lodge, it is hoped that it will have the co-operation of all the city's business and professional men and all people generally. The building of the new home will mean the expenditure of thousands of dollars among Newarkites, for all material, furnishings, etc., as well as all labor employed, will be a strictly "home affair." The net profits derived from the minstrel program and the sale of tickets will be used in making scores of homes happy at Christmas tide and that which remains will go into the building fund.

There are now over four hundred members of the local order and this is fast increasing so that the five hundred mark will soon be reached and all of these are taking an active interest in the forthcoming entertainment.

The general minstrel committee composed of Harry D. Hale, James R. Cooper, Homer Jones, John Ankele, Dr. J. L. Lewis and W. J. Koblenz announce the appointment of the following committee:

Program—Smith, Redman, Hewett, Shuck, Williams, Maholin, Ott, Vogelmeier, Frank Neighbor, R. W. Smith, Cary Drickor, Dr. J. L. Lewis, Gus Weiland, Mat Kneuffer, Jess Walters and William Kuster.

Advertising—Frank Neighbor and Harry D. Hale.

Lithographs—Homer Jones, Charles W. Swank, W. J. Koblenz and Joseph Shiner.

Parade—F. S. Scott, R. W. Smith and John Ankele.

Finance—George Graesser and W. W. Gard.

Entertainment—Col. W. C. Wells, Harry Starr and Charles Dean.

The committee has secured the services of Oscar Stanton of Zanesville, to direct the entertainment and rehearsals will begin in the very near future. Mr. Stanton successfully directed last year's show and the announcement of his acceptance to participate again this year will be received with pleasure. He is thorough and competent and under his capable conduct the success of the minstrel is assured.

The first part will consist of an entire new arrangement participated in by sixty people, with elaborate costumes secured from one of the best known costumers in the country. Special scenery will be ordered and it will be on a plan entirely different from anything ever attempted before in minstrelsy. The soloists will be chosen from among the best musicians in the city and the chorus will be composed of forty well known Elks.

The olio is not yet completed, but suffice to say it will be well worth while and the fun will be fast and furious. The entire minstrel will prove an entertainment par excellence and will afford an evening of amusement that will long be remembered by all who witness it.

Ask Druggist Evans About Nerv-Worth

He Has Made Careful Observation of the Great Nerve-Builders' Benefits.

In no city where Nerv-Worth has been introduced have the grateful users of this unequalled nerve-builder been more prompt to endorse it than have this class in the city of Newark. Scores have said glowing words in praise of Nerv-Worth to friends and neighbors and a very large number have given formal written endorsements.

Among the latter, three recently made to Mr. T. J. Evans, proprietor of the Evans drug store where Nerv-Worth is always on sale, have attracted marked attention. Mrs. George Farley, of 27 W. Halliday street declared that one bottle of Nerv-Worth overcame nerve troubles of 4 years standing; Mrs. Hugh Ford, of Condit, that Nerv-Worth drove away her sleeplessness and indigestion; Mrs. Sarah Norris, of 405 Baltimore street, that Nerv-Worth gave her restless sleep and relieved her terrible headaches.

Mr. Evans takes personal charge of Nerv-Worth matters. He can tell you of many other cases of great Nerv-Worth benefits and will be glad to advise you about its use. Ask him for a sample dose. Buy a bottle. He will hand you your money back if Nerv-Worth fails to help.

Denison Will Not Play Team From Mt. Union

Cleveland, Nov. 23.—There will not be a post-season game between Mt. Union and Denison to decide the Ohio intercollegiate football conference championship. Negotiations for the contest were called off by Coach Livingston of Denison Saturday, following Denison's 14 to 0 victory over Reserve.

Friday night Denison officials authorized the statement that negotiations for the contest probably would be successfully consummated, providing Denison was successful against Reserve.

In rendering a negative verdict Saturday night Livingston stated: "My boys have played one of the stiffest schedules ever arranged by an Ohio conference team. The strain has tested their stamina to the limit. I don't believe I would be justified in asking them to continue training one week longer for a post-season contest as much as I would like to play Mt. Union. The boys are pretty well bruised up now, and I am afraid that they could not do justice to themselves."

"I am sorry we're forced to reach this conclusion. Believe me, no one regrets more than I do that Mt. Union was not on our schedule this year. We certainly will do all on our part to remove any doubt next year at least as far as Mt. Union is concerned."

"If Mt. Union officials are willing they certainly will have a place on our schedule next year and no one would be more anxious to have the game decided in Cleveland than I would. If that proposition is presented I will be the first to give consent to sign the necessary documents."

REACH CLIMAX AT PLYMOUTH CHURCH

Yesterday's services were at high tide at Plymouth Congregational church. Attendance was large at each of the three services. Speaking in the morning on "Paying the Full Price of a Spirit-filled Life," Miss Rudy said: "We have cheapened the word 'consecration' by our many services for re-consecration. Consecration should be thorough and eternal; it is business with God. Re-consecration implies the taking back from God, and taking back from God is robbery. God exclaims in Malachi's prophecy: 'Will a man rob God? Yet ye have robbed me. It is a serious thing to trifle with God by giving, and then taking back again what is given.'"

A number raised their hands indicating their desire to be thorough in this matter of yielding to God.

In the afternoon speaking on the subject of the "Christian's Blessed Hope," Miss Rudy said: "Christian's blessed hope is the return of Jesus. There are patriarchal, prophetic, angelic and apostolic heralds of His coming. The whole creation groaneth for it. The teachings of Jesus emphasized it—'If I go away, I will come again.'"

The evening service was a powerful one. Speaking on "Conviction," Miss Rudy said: "It is the operation of God's holy spirit in the human heart to prove its guilt and voice it to God. Resisting God's proffers of salvation solidifies the conscience and steals the heart."

The plea was strong and urgent, and much fruit is expected from this service.

Services will be held each evening except Saturday and all are invited to attend. There will be an afternoon service at 2:30 o'clock Wednesday.

NEW HARDWARE STORE OPENED IN EAST NEWARK

Quin F. McNamey and his son, J. E. McNamey, last week opened a new hardware store in the Bolen block, 251 East Main street and the new firm is carrying a nice business. The store is a Presbyterial church building and a new $125,000 edifice Sunday.

TWO FIRES DUE TO USE OF COAL

Two fire alarms within 12 hours, one Sunday afternoon at 1:35 and the other early Monday morning, were due to the use of coal, according to the report of "women who answered the alarms." The Sunday afternoon alarm was caused by a defective fire at the home of Joseph Touchman on the Second street hill which allowed the smoke to escape in the attic. It worked its way through the shingles making it appear that the house was burning. There was no fire. Monday morning about 1:00 o'clock the department was called to the home of A. A. Stasel, Locust and Clinton streets. A hot coal which rolled from an open grate set fire to a floor, burning a hole through the flooring. The blaze was extinguished after a half hour of arduous had been caused. The loss was covered by insurance.

MINOTT O. NASH

Minott O. Nash, real estate dealer, former justice of the peace, prominent in local G. A. R. circles, died suddenly Sunday noon of heart trouble at his home, 17 North Fifth street. He had followed a week's illness of kidney trouble, but it was thought that he was recovering nicely from this affliction, when he was seized with the sudden attack of heart trouble.

Mr. Nash was born in Rochester, N. Y., and came to Newark in his early childhood. He had always made his home in Newark, identified with the mercantile life of the community and he was elected to the office of justice of the peace of Newark twenty days in 1906. After retiring from the office at the end of his term, he operated the real estate business in which he was engaged at the time of his death.

At the age of 19 years, he entered in the U. S. Army, Ohio Volunteer Infantry, and served until the end of the civil war. His company took part in

BETTER THAN CALOMEL

Thousands Have Discovered
Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a Harmless Substitute

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the substitute for calomel—are a mild but sure laxative, and their effect on the liver is almost instantaneous. They are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel. His efforts to banish it brought out these little olive-colored tablets.

These pleasant little tablets do the good that calomel does but have no bad after effects. They don't injure the teeth like strong liquids or calomel. They take hold of the trouble and quickly correct it. Why cure the liver at the expense of the teeth? Calomel sometimes plays havoc with the gums. So do strong liquids.

It is best not to take calomel, but to let Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets take its place. Most headaches, "dullness" and that lazy feeling come from constipation and a disordered liver. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "foggy" and "heavy." Note how they "clear" clouded brain and how they "perk up" the spirits. At 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

Services at the First Presbyterian church yesterday were conducted by the pastor with usually large audiences and a manifest deepening of interest. At the evening service, the auditorium of the church was crowded. The sermon topic was, "Requisites for Salvation" and was based upon the question asked by the Philippian jailor. The preacher said that were Paul present in the flesh today he would doubtless give an answer differently worded but conveying the same meaning it carried to that jailor. The Rev. James M. McJunkin, D.D., of Oakdale, Pa., arrived in the city at noon today and will preach every evening this week at 7:45. A service of song begins each evening at 7:15. Berlin's Palaces.
Berlin owes its palaces and many of its finest buildings to Frederick William I. That monarch had a passion for building and transmitted it to others. Whenever he heard of a rich merchant settling in the capital he ordered him to build a residence in keeping with his wealth. If the merchant obeyed he was duly rewarded, and many German families owe their title of nobility to an ancestor having built a fine house.

Paper was made from rags in Arabia more than ten centuries ago, the art being brought to Europe in the thirteenth century.

PROVISIONS FOR THE ARMY IN THE FIELD.

Importance of keeping body well nourished.

In time of war, the greatest effort is always made toward cutting off the enemy's base of supplies. It is the well-nourished people who fight the strongest and live the longest and contribute most to human progress. Is your stomach doing its duty—does it convert food into good blood and tissue?

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has been so successful in the treatment of indigestion, that thousands of former sufferers owe their good health of today to its wonderful power, and testimonials prove it.

It arouses the little muscular fibres into activity and causes the gastric juices to thoroughly mix with the food you eat, simply because it supplies the stomach with pure, rich blood. It's weak, impure blood that causes stomach weakness. Get good blood through the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and you will have no more indigestion.

It is the world's proved blood purifier. It's not a secret remedy for its ingredients are printed on the wrapper. Start to take it today and before another day has passed, the impurities of the blood will begin to leave your body through the liver, kidneys, bowels and skin, and in a few days you will know by your steadier nerves, firmer step, keener mind, brighter eyes and clearer skin, that the bad blood is passing out, and new, rich, pure blood is filling your veins and arteries.

The same good blood will cause pimples, acne, eczema and all skin eruptions to dry up and disappear. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is the helpful remedy that nearly everyone needs. It contains no alcohol or narcotics of any kind. It cleanses the blood, and every organ through which the blood flow is benefited. Get it today in liquid or tablet form.

COMB SAGE TEA INTO GRAY HAIR

Ladies! Try this! Darkens beautifully and nobody can tell—Brings back its gloss and thickness.

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea, with sulphur and alcohol added will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant; remove every bit of dandruff, stop scalp itching and falling hair. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get the ready-to-use tonic, costing about 50 cents a large bottle, at drug stores, known as "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy," thus avoiding a lot of fuss.

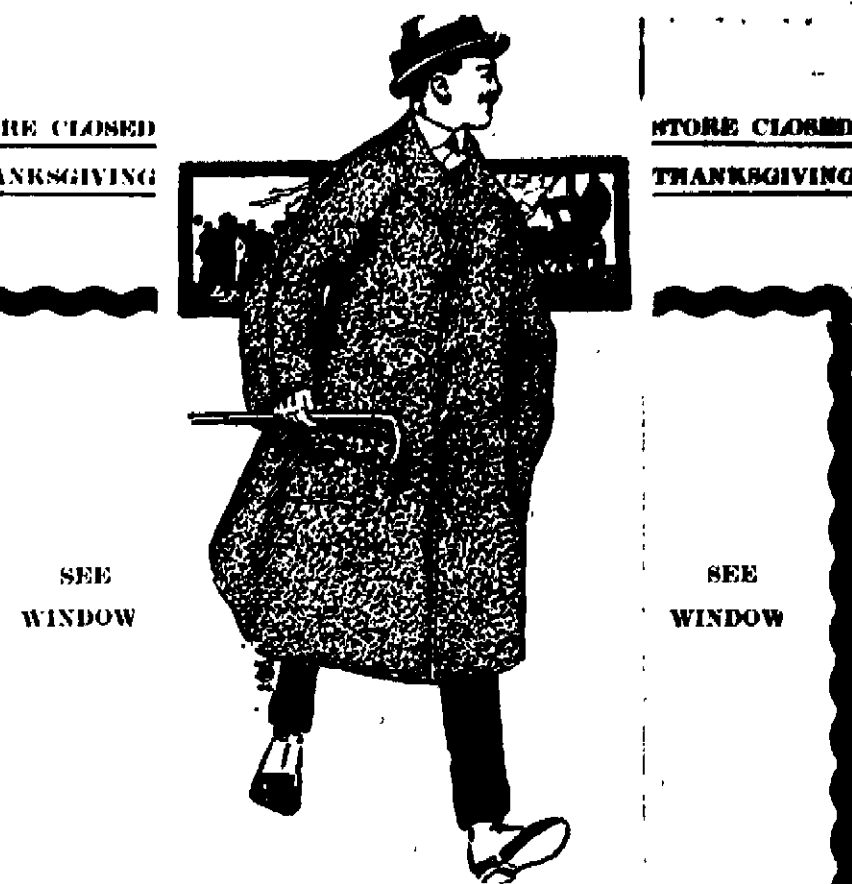

While wispy, gray faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared. After another application or two your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant and you appear years younger. Agents, Hall's drug store.
